Addendum 1 – Vakaros Use for RaceSense

Vakaros System Usage Each boat shall have a working Vakaros Atlas 2 using a WASZP Vakaros mount and configured for RaceSense at check-in.

Failure of an Atlas 2 or the RaceSense system shall not be grounds for redress. This changes RRS 63.1, 60.1(b), 60.2(b) and 60.3(b). All the telemetry will be saved on the units. The intention is that the units will be used to call the start line with regard to if a boat is on course side.

Additionally, the Race Officers may use their discretion to call additional boats OCS. Therefore, it is unlikely that there will be General Recalls, as all boats should be identified as OCS if they are OCS. The system works by having a unit on each end of the start line. At the moment of the start, the unit carried by each boat will make a determination if the boat is over the line or not, and automatically deliver a message of OCS with a red light on the boats that are determined to be over the line.

The system does not track boats that are over the line within one minute, so in the case of U flag or Black flag starts, the Race Officers will manually track OCS boats like normal. In the case of P flag starts, boats that return behind the line will be notified by their unit that they have returned beyond the start line and will be cleared to race. For the purpose of these starts, the race officers may use electronic means to determine OCS. This will include boats that did not return and/or boats that are determine OCS by the Race Officer.

If, while on the water, the Race Officers wish to continue racing without using the Vakaros system, they will display Lima flag and verbally inform the competitors to resume to normal race procedures.
